

CELLULAR TELEPHONE DISPOSAL / REUSE

Used cellular phones can find new use. Victims assistance and domestic violence agencies use them for their clients. They are reprogrammed to dial police agencies directly by pressing one button. A deactivated phone can still be used to dial 911, even if it has been deactivated. Contact the following agencies to donate old cell phones.

Genesee County

Phones can be dropped off at:

Verizon Communications Store
419 West Main Street
Batavia, NY 14020
Ph. 585/345-0919

YMCA
301 North Street
Batavia, NY 14020
Ph. 585/343-5808

Livingston County

Chances and Changes
Ph. 585/658-3940

Call for information on where phones can be dropped off

Orleans County

Phones can be dropped off at:

Orleans County Domestic Violence Agency
Orleans County District Attorney's Office
Orleans County Public Safety Building
13925 Route 31, Suite 300
Albion, NY 14411

Wyoming County

Wyoming Co. Community Action/Victims Assistance Div.
Ph. 585/786-2010

Call for information on whether phones are being accepted and where they can be dropped off.

There are locations throughout the state, including Rochester and Buffalo, where phones are accepted. For exact locations access www.donateaphone.com